Dear Walter:

I have your letters of November 28th and 29th.

I am afraid I cannot be in New York for the Committee on Studies. Please make my excuses to Harry Wriston. I shall, however, come up for the Board Meeting on the 17th.

Sincerely,

Dear Allen:

With reference to the Board meeting about which I wrote you yesterday and the suggestions which Dev Josephs wishes to bring up, I send you, enclosed, a copy of a letter that he has written to Henry Wriston. You will see from this exactly what he has in mind.

With best regards,

Sincerely yours,
